

You are invited to

The World in our Neighbourhoods

Monday 11 December 2006 - 9.30am to 4.30pm

Tottenham Hotspur Football Club (Box Holders North Conference suite)

This exciting conference will explore how globalisation, migration and cultural diversity impact on neighbourhoods in London and other cities around the world.

Featuring a wide range of speakers from international experts to community practitioners and local authorities, the programme will include case studies about diverse neighbourhoods in Amsterdam, Stockholm, London and even further afield.

During the day we will explore the big challenges facing neighbourhoods dealing with creating sustainable communities through diversity and constant migration throughout Europe and the world.

Guest speakers:

- David Lammy MP - Culture Minister and MP for Tottenham
- Geoff Mulgan - Director of the Young Foundation
- Professor Miles Hewstone - Professor of Social Psychology, Oxford University

Why attend?

This autumn the government will publish a White Paper setting out its proposals to revive local democracy and improve local services by giving new powers to neighbourhoods and local committies.

Cost: £120

(Discounts available for community groups) Buffet lunch and all refreshments are included in the cost.
